

Photo: Rainer Schlegemilch

CHANGING WITH THE TIMES WITHOUT CHANGING QUALITY

Photo: Rainer Schlegelmich

Above: The legendary Blitzen (Lightning) Benz. This famous racing car, designed by Hans Nibel, won many events and captured numerous records. It lapped Brooklands at 205 km/h (127.4 mph) in 1909 and held the land speed record at 228 km/h (141.7 mph) for several years.

Right: The 300S of the mid 1950s had several advanced features, including single-joint swing axle rear suspension.

Photo: Rainer Schlegelmich